

JESSICA M. DOLAN, Ph.D., MSc.
Tel.: 315-813-0087
E-mail: liftingupleaves@gmail.com
www.jessica-dolan.com

EDUCATION

- 2016 Ph.D., Anthropology, McGill University, Montréal, Canada
- 2004 M.Sc., Ethnobotany, University of Kent, Canterbury, UK
- 1999 B.A., History and Social Science, New School for Social Research, New York, NY
- 1998 Semester Abroad, School for International Training, Cape Coast, Ghana

Citizenship: U.S. citizen (Canadian Express Entry Permanent Residency application submitted)

Languages: English (native speaker); French (intermediate level writing, speaking and comprehension); Mohawk/ Kanienkeha (introductory); Botanical Latin (through employment and study in plant taxonomy)

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Geographical specialization: Haudenosaunee (Iroquoian) studies; North American Indigenous studies; Ireland

Teaching areas: cultural anthropology; ethnicity and diversity; environmental/ ecological anthropology; Native American and Indigenous studies; methods and ethics; environmental studies - policy, management, research design; ethnobotany; ethnobiology and multi-species relationships; land-based learning, traditional ecological knowledge (TEK), and Indigenous knowledge systems; global sustainability studies; social science of food and water; community based participatory and engaged research; museum and archival collections-based research.

EMPLOYMENT

- 2019-20 Fulbright Fellow, University of Guelph, Canada Visiting Research Chair in Indigenous Studies, Guelph Ontario
- Current Grant Writer, Native American Food Sovereignty Alliance (NAFSA)
- 2019 Grant Writer and Program Development Coach, Vermont Wilderness School, grant writing and consulting for diversity, anti-racism, equity, and decolonization education in VWS programs.
- 2019 New England Grassroots Environmental Grant - Funded Scholar, Indigenous and environmental studies podcast writer, The Brattleboro Words Trail: People, Places and the History of Words in Brattleboro, Vermont

- 2019 Adjunct Instructor, “Ethnicity and Diversity in the United States,” Community College of Vermont – Brattleboro, Vermont

- 2017 – 18 Environmental Assessment Officer, Youth and Elders Camp Coordinator, Grant Writer, Mohawk Council of Akwesasne Environment Program, Akwesasne Mohawk Nation, Cornwall, Ontario

- 2017 Research Assistant, Great Lakes Research Alliance the Study of Aboriginal Arts and Cultures (GRASAC), "Wampum Showcase" Project, Directed by Dr. Margaret Bruchac.

- 2017 Anthropologist, First Nations Information Governance Centre, contracted by Dr. Laurence Kirmayer and Dr. Samuel Veissière.

- 2017 Lecturer, Indigenous Field Studies Course in the Mohawk Community of Kahnawà:ke, Anthropology Department, McGill University

- 2015 North American Projects Coordinator, North American Community Environmental Leadership Exchange, Global Diversity Foundation, Montréal

- 2014 Environmental Consultant, Greening Onondaga Compost and Waste Remediation Project, Onondaga Nation, New York

- 2013 – 14 Assistant Director, Center for Native Peoples and the Environment, SUNY-ESF

- 2008 – 13 Teaching Assistant, McGill University: Environmental Thought, Introduction to Indigenous Studies, Ecological Anthropology, Environmental Research Design, Introduction to Cultural Anthropology, Legal Anthropology

- 2009 – 13 Research Assistant, Anthropology Department, McGill University

- 2010 Lecturer, Indigenous Field Studies Course in Kahnawà:ke, Anthropology Department, McGill University

- 2004 – 07 Curatorial Assistant, Harvard University Herbaria, Harvard Museum of Natural History, Harvard University

- 2004 Internship Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, Centre for Economic Botany, London, UK, seed banking and economic botany collections

- 1997 – 03 Associate Librarian, Everett Collection, New York, NY Archive Manager, Digital Imaging Specialist, Coordinator of International Promotions

PUBLICATIONS

Peer-reviewed journal articles, chapters, reviews & reports.

- Dolan, Jessica. In preparation. "Red Hill Valley Revisited: The Political Ecology of Applying Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge to a Joint Stewardship Project."
- Dolan, Jessica. In preparation. "Ecology and Kin: Environmental Values and Frameworks that Derive from Haudenosaunee Traditional Knowledge."
- Dolan, Jessica. In preparation. "Kanienkeha'ka (Mohawk) Women's Relationship with American Ginseng, and Lafitau's 'Discovery' of it in Kahnawa:ke in the early 1700s."
- Dolan, Jessica. In preparation. "Haudenosaunee Ethnobotany and Environmental Caretaking: Navigating Community-Based Work and Resurgence as a Scholar-Ally."
- Dolan, Jessica. In preparation. Ten podcasts on Indigenous history of the Brattleboro Area, with accompanying essays and photography for the Brattleboro Words and Places Project, a public history podcast/mapping project.
- Dolan, Jessica. Submitted to Iroquoia, January 2020. "Haudenosaunee Clans: Matrilineality and Connections to Land."
- Scott, Katherine, Dolan, Jessica M., and Stewart, Dorothy. In press. "Every time I go on the Land I Learn: Cree Traditional Knowledge and Community Education." In Scott, Colin, Brown, Peter, Labrecque, Jessica, eds. Dialoguing Knowledges: Finding Our Way to Respect and Relationship, University of British Columbia Press.
- Dolan, Jessica. 2020. "Eastern Woodland Edible and Medicinal Plants I learned Growing up in Vermont." Published 1/20/20 on the blog Forage! Found at: <https://ethnobiology.org/forage/blog/eastern-woodland-edible-and-medicinal-plants-i-learned-growing-vermont>
- Dolan, Jessica. 2017. "Indigenous Peoples' Day and the Cedar Strip Canoe." In the Brattleboro Reformer, October 4.
- Dolan, Jessica M. 2016. The Restorative Ecology of Peace: Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge and Philosophies of Stewardship (PhD dissertation, Dept. of Anthropology, McGill University).
- Wenzel, George W., Dolan, Jessica M., And Brown, Chloe. 2016. "Wild Resources, Harvest Data and Food Security in Nunavut's Qikiqtaaluk Region: A Diachronic Analysis." In Arctic (Arctic Institute of North America), 69: 2; 147 - 159.
- Dolan, Jessica M. 2011. "Principles and Practices of Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge." International Society of Ethnobiology Newsletter. Volume 3, Special Issue, August 2011. Accessible at: http://www.ethnobiology.net/wp-content/uploads/ISE-Newsletter-August-2011_photos.pdf
- Dolan, Jessica M. 2009. Book review, Nukak: Ethnoarchaeology of an Amazonian People, by Gustavo Politis. In Economic Botany. 63(2): 217.

Bussières, Véronique, Scott, Katherine, Dolan, Jessica M., Stewart, Henry, Mulrennan, Monica and Scott, Colin. 2008. Wemindji Marine and Island surveys 2008. Plant ecology and ethnobotany report presented to representatives from Environment Canada, Parks Canada, Department of Fisheries and Oceans and the Grand Council of the Crees, November 20.

Dolan, Jessica M. 2007. "Ochtrinil's Legacy: Irish Women's Knowledge of Medicinal Plants." In Harvard Papers in Botany, 12(2): 369.

Dolan, Jessica M. 2004. Cultural Transmission of Knowledge of Medicinal Plants Amongst Women in County Kerry, Ireland. (MSc Thesis, Centre for Biocultural Diversity, School of Anthropology and Conservation, University of Kent at Canterbury, United Kingdom).

Conferences.

2020. "Haudenosaunee ethnobotany and environmental caretaking: tending to restorative collaborations in community-based work." Accepted to Engaging Indigenous Communities: Respect, Reciprocity and Reconciliation. June 18 – 20. Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick. Postponed until 2021 due to Covid-19 Pandemic.

2020. "Haudenosaunee ethnobotany and environmental caretaking: tending to restorative collaborations in community-based work," to be presented at the Canadian Anthropology Society Annual Meeting, London, Ontario. Cancelled due to Covid-19 Pandemic.

2019. " 'What we live on': Haudenosaunee Environmental Thought, Resurgence, and Food systems." Presented at the Conference on Iroquois Research (4-6 October, Montréal, Québec).

2019. "Ethnobotany of Northeastern Woodlands, Fields and Riverbanks: Indigenous and Naturalized Edible Wild Plants," with Terrylynn Serasera Brant. Herbstalk. June 1st, Somerville, MA.

2019. 'What we live on': Researching common edible and medicinal plants in support of women's lifework in Haudenosaunee communities. Society of Ethnobiology Conference, (8-11 May, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia).

2018. A Field Guide to the Plants and Trees of Haudenosaunee Traditional Knowledge and Food Systems. Conference on Iroquois Research (12 - 14 October, Ganondagan, Victor, New York).

2018. Attended: Intertribal Food Sovereignty Summit, Mashantucket Pequot Museum.

2017. 'The Restorative Ecology of Peace: Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge and Philosophies of Stewardship'. Paper presented at Conference on Iroquois Research (14 -15 October, Oswego, New York).

2017. 'Our Sustenance, the Plants and the Trees: Cultural Persistence of Wild and Heirloom Food Species in Haudenosaunee Communities'. Paper presented at the Society of Ethnobiology Conference (10 - 13 May, Montréal, Québec).

2016. (Invited Round Table Participant) 'Defining (and Overcoming) Challenges to Land-Based Self Determination'. Society for Applied Anthropology Annual Conference (29 March-2 April, Vancouver, British Columbia).

2016. 'Turn, Turn, Turn': Re-animating Multi-species Relations through Tactile-Kinesthetic Learning to Restore Indigenous Landscapes (Paper). Society of Ethnobiology Conference, 16- 20 March, Tuscon, Arizona.

(with the Protectors of Mother Earth Committee) 2014. Healing Mother Earth: A Project of Environmental Restoration at Onondaga Nation (Paper). Presented with Adah Shenandoah at the Conference on Iroquois Research, 5 October, New York.

2014. In Creation and Idle No More: Heeding Onkwehonwe Prophecies of Earth Changes as Environmental Knowledge. (Paper) Presented at the Society of Ethnobiology/Society of Economic Botany Joint Conference, 11- 15 May, Eastern Band of Cherokee Nation, NC.

2012. 'Building the Thinking': Environmental Consciousness in the Philosophy of Haudenosaunee Leadership. (Paper) Presented at the Conference on Iroquois Research, 6 October, Hope Lake, New York.

2012. What the HEK: Haudenosaunee Ecological Knowledge and the Cultural Nature of Environmental Policy. (Paper) Presented at the 4th Annual Native American and Indigenous Studies Association Conference, 6 June, Mohegan Sun, Mohegan territory, Connecticut.

2012. Haudenosaunee Ecological Knowledge and Environmental Stewardship. (Paper) Report back to the community, Six Nations Ethics Research Forum, 26 May, Six Nations of the Grand River, Ohsweken, Ontario.

2011. Red Hill Valley Revisited: Political Restoration Ecology and the Great Law of Peace. (Paper). Presented at the American Anthropological Association conference, 16 November, Montréal, Québec.

2010. (with George Wenzel & Chloe Brown) 'A (Raw) Diachronic Look at Food Security in The Qikiqtaaluk Region of Nunavut. (Paper) Presented at the 17th Inuit Studies Conference (28-30 October, Université du Québec en Abitibi-Témiscamingue, Val-d'Or, Québec).

2010. (with Katherine Scott) Cree Ethnoecological Heritage in a Proposed Marine Conservation Area in Eastern James Bay, Canada. (Poster Presented at the International Society of Ethnobiology Congress, Tofino, BC, May 9-14.

2010. 'Research Proposal: Environmental Philosophy, Land Ethics, and Stewardship Projects in the Haudenosaunee Confederacy'. Poster presented at the International Society of Ethnobiology Congress (May 9-14, Tofino, BC).

Visual media.

2016. "NACELE -- Nourishing Relations: People, Plants, and Place," Film made by Inanc Tekguc about the Global Diversity Foundation's North American Community Environmental Leadership Exchange, at the Montréal Botanical Garden in June of 2015. (co-organized and secured funding for conference; edited film with Tekguc and Susannah McCandless; accessible at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=npuvkw9XUS8&feature=youtu.be>)
2015. "Just In Canada," Interviewed by Justin Douglas about Haudenosaunee environmental philosophies (accessible at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gBnpL02MSlg>)

COURSES TAUGHT

- 2019 Ethnicity and Diversity in the United States, Community College of Vermont
- 2013 – 14 Indigenous Environmental Leaders for the Future, SUNY-ESF
- 2010, '17 Indigenous Field Studies Course, McGill University and Mohawk Nation of Kahnawà:ke

INVITED LECTURES

- 2020 Invited speaker for General Audience, a public seminar series, on the theme of "Plants." Montréal, Quebec – moved to zoom-based webinar salon – date pending.
- 2020 "Haudenosaunee Ethnobotany and Environmental Caretaking: Navigating ethnobotanical research and Indigenous resurgence as a scholar-ally," March, 2020. University of Guelph, co-sponsored by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, and the Guelph Institute for Environmental Research, Ontario. Cancelled due to Covid-19 Pandemic.
- 2020 Guest speaker on Indigenous and Decolonizing Research Methodologies, University of Guelph Sociology and Anthropology Department Pro-Seminar, March 13th.
- 2019 "Re-envisioning relationships with place, migration and home through Indigenous studies," presented at the Vermont Humanities Council Conference, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont
- 2019 "Words on the Water: Stories of Wantastegok, the West River, and Abenaki Presence." Community Presentation at the confluence of the West and Connecticut Rivers, Brattleboro, Vermont.
- 2019 "Ethnobotany of Northeastern Woodlands, Fields and Riverbanks: Indigenous and Naturalized Edible Wild Plants," with Terrylynn Serasera Brant. July 10th, Mohawk Nation of Akwesasne, Thomson Island Cultural Camp
- 2019 "Indigenous Histories in Vermont, decolonizing methodologies, and learning in place." School for International Training, International Honors Program teacher orientation. Brattleboro, Vermont
- 2019 "The Restorative Ecology of Peace: Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge and Caretaking Mother Earth,” University of Massachusetts History Course on Indigenous Women, Amherst, Massachusetts

- 2019 “The Restorative Ecology of Peace: Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge and Caretaking Mother Earth,” 350Vermont MotherUp! Monthly Meeting, Brattleboro, Vermont
- 2018 “The Restorative Ecology of Peace: Haudenosaunee Environmental Knowledge and Caretaking Mother Earth,” Job Talk at the Chanie Wenjack School of Indigenous Studies, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario
- 2018 (With Rich Holschuh) "Indigenous perspectives on today's environmental challenges," Climate Change Cafe, a Project of Post-oil Solutions, Brooks Memorial Library, Brattleboro, Vermont
- 2018 "Indigenous and Canadian Partnerships in Caring for Land and Place," Ontario Landowners Lunch and Learn, hosted by the Saint Lawrence River Institute, Long Sault, Ontario
- 2017 "Empowering the next generations of environmental justice researchers: lessons in resilience and resurgence from the Oceti Sakowin and Haudenosaunee," Job Talk at Hampshire College, Amherst, MA
- 2013 “Building Relationships between Allies and Indigenous People,” Idle Know More Teach-In, Wilfred Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario
- 2013 “Building Relationships between Indigenous and Settler Populations,” Idle Know More Teach-In, Wilfred Laurier University, Brantford, Ontario
- 2013 “Haudenosaunee Have Never Been Idle: Indigenous Governance and Environmental Protection in the North American Consciousness,” for Indigenous Peoples and Autonomy, Dept. of Anthropology, McGill University
- 2011 “Haudenosaunee Thought and the Environment: Following Two Roads of Written and Oral history,” for First Peoples of Canada Course, Concordia University
- 2006 – 07 Guest Lectures at the Harvard Museum of Natural History for Harvard College Courses: Ethnobotany “Plants and Human Affairs”; Freshman Biology “Nature and Imposters: Mimicry and Crypsis”; Indigenous Studies Motherland: Gender, Indigeneity, and the Environment: “Edward Palmer’s Plant Collections in Leslie Marmon Silko’s ‘Garden’s in the Dunes,’ and in Harvard’s Botanical Museum”

RESEARCH

- Current A cultural and scientific field guide to Haudenosaunee ethnobotany. Museum and community-based research to write a field guide to Haudenosaunee traditional food systems, in support of food sovereignty and climate change adaptation/restoration projects in the communities.

- Current Grant-funded research scholar, writing ten podcasts on Indigenous and environmental History. Brattleboro Words Trail: People, Places, and the History of Words in Brattleboro, Vermont. <http://brattleborowords.org>
- 2012 Research Assistant. Transcriptions for an Environment Canada Project on Perceptions of Change of Water Quality in the Grand River Among People at Six Nations of the Grand River
- 2012 – 13 Research Assistant. Dr. Colin Scott. Research Team Conference Coordinator and Digital Librarian for INSTEAD (Indigenous Stewardship of the Environment, and Alternatives to Development) an international research team based at McGill University
- 2011 Research Assistant. Richard Hill and the Joint Stewardship Board, Six Nations of the Grand River. Carried out research on Haudenosaunee involvement with the Red Hill Valley Expressway project, which formed a case study in my dissertation
- 2010 Research Assistant. Dr. George Wenzel. Prepared statistics on hunting practices for a paper co-authored with Dr. Wenzel about Inuit cultural resilience and environmental change on Baffin Island, Nunavut (see publications)
- 2009 – 10 Research Assistant. Dr. Colin Scott. Wrote a history of the SSHRC-CURA funded Paakumshumwaau Protected Area Project, collaboration between McGill and Concordia Universities, and the Cree Nation of Wemindji to establish marine and terrestrial biodiversity reserve in Northern QC, 2000 – 2009 (see publications)
- 2009 Research Assistant. Edited and formatted: Human Expeditions: Inspired by Bruce Trigger (Chrisomalis, Stephen and Costopoulos, Andre, eds., University of Toronto Press)
- 1998 Undergraduate Field Research: Plants Used for Women’s Reproductive Health, Cape Coast, Ghana

HONORS AND GRANTS

- 2020 Submitted: $32,000 First Nations Development Institute Food Sovereignty grant for the Native American Food Sovereignty Alliance
- 2020 Submitted: $5,000 Clif Bar Family Foundation grant for the Native American Food Sovereignty Alliance
- 2020 $3,000: Honor the Earth Indigenous Resilience Food Sovereignty Grant for the Native American Food Sovereignty Alliance
- 2020 $20,000: WLS Spencer Foundation Capacity Building grant and

$10,000: Thomas Thompson Trust Capacity Building grant for Vermont Wilderness School

- 2019 – 20 Fulbright Fellow: Canada Visiting Research Chair in Indigenous Studies, University of Guelph, Guelph Ontario
- 2018 New England Grassroots Environment Grow Fund. “Reanimating Indigenous Relationships with Land in the Greater Brattleboro Area.” To fund my work writing Indigenous and environmental studies podcasts for The Brattleboro Words Trail: People, Places, and the History of Words in Brattleboro, Vermont.
- 2018 Mary Druke Becker Scholarship for a community-based scholar, Conference on Iroquois Research
- 2017 Writing residency fellowship. Vermont Studio Center, Johnson, Vermont.
- 2015 $25,000 SSHRC Connection Grant: “Nourishing Relations: People Plants, and Place.” Funded the Global Diversity Foundation’s North American Community Environmental Leadership Exchange (NACELE). June 18 – 22. In partnership with the Montréal Botanical Garden, Université de Montréal, and the Cultural Conservancy
- 2014 Sustainable Forestry International Grant for use by SUNY ESF and MCA Department of Tehotienawakon, Thomson Island Youth and Elders’ Camp, for education about Trees of Akwesasne
- 2012/2014 Ernest & Salli Benedict Memorial Scholarship, Conference on Iroquois Research
- 2012 Wolfe Chair Graduate Fellowship in Scientific and Technological Literacy McGill University
- 2010 – 13 Bronfman and Paterson Top-Up Award, McGill Institute for the Study of Canada
- 2009 – 13 McGill University Eben Hopson Fellowship for Native and Aboriginal Studies
- 2011 McGill University Dissertation Writing Workshop Award
- 2011 McGill University Arts Graduate Research Travel Award
- 2010 American Philosophical Society Lewis and Clark Fund for Field Research
- 2010 McGill University Internal SSHRC for Graduate Fieldwork
- 2010 McGill University Class of 1966 Faculty of Arts and Science Award
- 2010 Canadian Embassy in the United States Canadian Studies for Doctoral Research
- 2010 McGill University Arts Graduate Student Travel Award

2007– 09 Organization of American States Academic Scholarship

CONFERENCES, WORKSHOPS, AND PANELS ORGANIZED

- 2019 Women's Work in Indigenous Societies (panel) co-organized with Ebba Olofsson, Society of Ethnobiology Conference, May 8 – 11, Musqueam Territory, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC
- 2016 – 17 Organizer/on-site coordinator, 40th Annual Society of Ethnobiology Conference on the theme of Advocacy, Ethics, and Applications, May 10 - 13, 2017, Montréal, QC
- 2017 Haudenosaunee Perspectives on Environmental Responsibility (panel) with Peggy Pyke-Thomson, the Ase Tsi Tewaton Akwesasne Cultural Restoration Program, Lynn Jacobs, and Eugene Nicholas, held at the 40th Society of Ethnobiology Conference, May 10 – 13, 2017, Montréal, QC
- 2015 Organizer/on-site coordinator, North American Community Environmental Leadership Exchange (NACELE), organized by the Global Diversity Foundation and the Cultural Conservancy, hosted by the Montréal Botanical Garden, Université de Montréal, and McGill University. Workshop theme: Nourishing Relations: People, Plants and Place for Indigenous environmental professionals, Montréal and Kahnawà:ke, June 18 – 22
- 2013 Organizer/Facilitator, Idle No More Teach-In and Panel: Bill C45, Indigenous Law, and Misconceptions in the Media. January 25. Sponsored by the Department of Anthropology and the First Peoples' House, McGill University
- 2009 Interrogating Adaptation (Panel). Johnson, Noorjehan, Dolan, Jessica M. and Costopoulos, Andre. McGill University Anthropology Graduate Student Conference, Montréal, QC, 6 March
- 2009 Organizer, Anthropology Graduate Student Conference at McGill University.

SERVICE AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 2017 Peer review of Steeves, Paulette. "Indigeneity," in the Oxford Online Bibliography.
- 2017 Conference coordinator, Society of Ethnobiology, Montréal Botanical Garden, QC
- 2016 Peer review of Mt. Pleasant, Jane. "Food Yields and Nutrient Analyses of the Three Sisters: A Haudenosaunee Cropping System," in Ethnobiology Letters. Vol 7, No 1
- 2015 Indigenous Mapping Workshop, The Firelight Group and Google Mapping, July 28 - 30, Waterloo, Ontario
- 2012 – 14 Elected North America Board Representative, International Society of Ethnobiology

- 2012 Peer reviewer of Uprety Y, Asselin H, Dhakal A, Julien N. "Traditional use of medicinal plants in the boreal forest of Canada: Review and perspectives" in Journal of Ethnobiology and Ethnomedicine 2012, 8:7
- 2006 – 07 Harvard University Herbaria: taxonomy and nomenclature training, Kanchi Gandhi, International Plant Names Index bibliographer. Field botany training, Glenn Adelson.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Present Canadian Anthropology Society
- 2007 – present Society of Ethnobiology
- 2010 – present Conference on Iroquois Research
- 2016 – 17 Society for Applied Anthropology
- 2005 – 14 International Society of Ethnobiology
- 2011 – 2012 Native American and Indigenous Studies Association
- 2003 – 15 Society for Economic Botany

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lived in: People's Republic of China 1986-87; Ghana Fall, 1998; England and Ireland 2003 – 2004; Canada 2007– 2013, 2015-2018, 2020

REFERENCES

Academic

Dr. André Costopoulos (Doctoral co-supervisor at McGill University)
Vice-provost and Dean of Students
Office of the Dean of Students
5-02 Students' Union Building, University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta
780-492-4145
costopou@ualberta.ca

Dr. Kristin Norget (Doctoral co-supervisor at McGill University)
Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Anthropology
McGill University
Montréal, QC
514-398-4286
kristin.norget@mcgill.ca

Dr. George Wenzel (Doctoral committee member at McGill University)
Associate Professor, Department of Geography
McGill University
Montréal, QC
514-398-4111
wenzel@felix.geog.mcgill.ca

Professional:

Dr. Henry Lickers (Mentor at recent position)
Scientific Director
Department of Tehotiennawakon, Environment Program
Mohawk Council of Akwesasne
101 Tewasateni Road, Akwesasne, Ontario K6H 5R7
Henry.lickers@akwesasne.ca

Peggy Pyke-Thompson (Manger at recent position)
Environment Program Manager
Department of Tehotiennawakon, Environment Program
Mohawk Council of Akwesasne
101 Tewasateni Road, Akwesasne, Ontario K6H 5R7
peggy.pyke@akwesasne.ca
<http://www.akwesasne.ca/environment>

Tim Johnson (Mentor)
Associate Director for Museum Programs (retired), Smithsonian Institution's NMAI
Executive Producer "Rumble: The Indians Who Rocked The World," Rezolution Pictures
Director Landscape of Nations 360
tim@thebearsinn.com

Dr. Robert Bye and Dr. Edelmira Linares (Ethnobiology mentors)
Jardín Botánico, Instituto de Biología
Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
04510 México, DF – México
bye.robert@gmail.com
+52 (55) 5622 9054